Published: 06/29/2017 - 19:42

The grand opening for the newly renovated Fredonia Hotel will occur in July or August. In the mean time, General Manager John McLaren said that the Nine Flags Bar and Casual Cafe are open. The Republic Steakhouse is expected to open in about 60 days.

Originally opened in 1955, the Fredonia Hotel has been under renovation by its new owners, local restaurateurs Richard and Barbara DeWitt. The DeWitts purchased the hotel in September of 2015 after being closed for almost two years.

The newly renovated hotel will infuse classic mid-century style with a new generation of hospitality. Nestled in the heart of historic Downtown Nacogdoches, this newly refurbished boutique hotel is at once historic and modern, custom designed to merge retro character with the most modern design and sophistication.
